Those who need working facilities on Wednesday 11 December can use the Norway International Press Centre at Vestbanen, tel. 22 83 83 10.

The ceremony in the City Hall:

Representatives of the Press Office together with the Police will check badges of all media for entry into the City Hall from 1130 hours. (Western Tower entrance)

Journalists:

Journalists will be given approximately 60 seats in the City Hall, (main hall) during the ceremony. Entry through the main entrance before 1230 hours.

POLICE WILL CLOSE ALL ENTRANCES TO THE CITY HALL AT 1245 HOURS

Photographers:

A photopool (Photopool No. 1: NRK/TV, RTP (Portugal), NTB, Scan-Foto) together with a photographer from the Norwegian Nobel Institute, will cover the ceremony from the ground-floor of the Main Hall. All other photographers (together with radioreporters) will be taken to the Eastern Gallery of the Hall.

Photographers who wish to cover the arrival of the Laureates and the guests to the City Hall, will be assigned to an area outside the main entrance. After the arrival of Their Majesties the King and Queen the photographers will be shown to the Eastern Gallery through the entrance of the Western Tower. The same photographer will thus not be able to cover both the arrivals and the opening processions inside the City Hall.

TV:

According to an agreement between the Norwegian Nobel Institute and the Norwegian Broadcasting Cooperation (NRK), the latter has certain rights to the television recording of the Peace Prize Ceremony 1996. Trans World International (TWI) in London, has distribution rights for the entire programme outside the EBU-area. NRK may, however, on request provide footage not exceeding five minutes for use in regular news broadcasts by television companies that are members of EBU.

Requests for technical assistance by foreign television companies may also be directed to NRK.

Contact persons at TWI London are: Mr Buzz Hornett, tel 44 181 846 8070, fax 44 181 233 5301

Contact person at NRK is: Mr.Gunnar Sjøli, Eurovision Office, NRK-TV, tel. 23 04 54 83, fax. 23 04 72 52.

TV-companies and radioreporters will be admitted to the gallery.
